Support Letter to host the 2015 ICPPP18 Conference in Novi Sad, Serbia

International Conference on Photoacoustic and Photothermal Phenomena

Distinguished Madams/Sirs,

With great excitement and hope, we in the National Tourism Organisation of Serbia have realized that the selection time of the country, place and venue of the 2015 ICPPP Conference has come.

We would like to take this opportunity to extend the Institute of Multidisciplinary Research and Institute of Physics, University of Belgrade proposal to host this prominent event. Bringing together specialists in photoacoustic and photothermal phenomena from around the World to exchange thoughts and expertise in Novi Sad, the meeting point among civilizations during the centuries, will give special feature to the vision of the International Conference on Photoacoustic and Photothermal Phenomena.

I am very thankful for considering our submission for this prestigious event, we are assuring you that we will do our best to make this Conference a success.

Your sincerely,

Gordana Plamenac
CEO/Managing Director
